Dear Ray:

Many thanks for your letter of 22 August. I am off today for a short European trip, and I would like to have a chance to talk over many of the points raised in your letter when you are next here. In particular I would like to discuss [redacted] article [redacted] which is an interesting presentation with which I disagree on certain points.

Frankly, I am not familiar with the latest developments in the Cultural Affairs Program in the State Department, although I had had several talks earlier in the fray with Chris Herter.

Sincerely,

Signed
